

CITIZENS UNION CANDIDATE QUESTIONNAIRE

NEW YORK CITY COUNCIL

ELECTION 2009

Citizens Union would appreciate your responses to the following questions related to policy issues facing the City of New York that are of concern to Citizens Union and the citizens of the City. We plan to make public your responses to this questionnaire in our Voters Directory, on our website, and in other appropriate venues. Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union will use to evaluate candidates who are running for office in order to determine our "Preferred Candidates" for the primary election and "Endorsed Candidates" for the general election. In order to receive Citizens Union's "preferred" or "endorsed" status, in addition to completing the questionnaire, candidates must participate in an interview with Citizens Union's Local Candidates Committee.

We thank you very much for your response.

*Support

Oppose

18. What is your position on reforming the current pension funding structure to create multiple tiers for future city government employees?

*Support (should look at but should be sensitive to members of labor unions because this could cut their benefits) a. In FY 2008-09, New York City spent $12 billion on pensions and fringe benefits for City employees out of a total budget of $62 billion. What would you do to address the growing pension costs borne by the city and New York City tax payers?

Oppose

___ Will propose that unions reopen their contracts with the city and renegotiate according to the fiscal reality that we are faced with.

19. What is your position with respect to the City Council passing a resolution calling upon the State Legislature to establish a State Constitutional Convention?

*Support

Oppose

a. If support, what are the three most important areas that need improvement?

___ Replacement of lieutenant Governor, breaking a stale mate, over site of the MTA

b. Do you believe that greater home rule should be granted to the City of New York? If so, in what areas should further sovereignty be given?

___ Housing

20. Taking into consideration the lessons learned from the debates surrounding congestion pricing and the Ravitch Commission's recommendations to provide the MTA with long-term funding, what would you propose to address the MTA's fiscal solvency issues and ensure that the burden for funding the MTA is equitably distributed among all stakeholders?

____ Need direct oversight over Public Authorities

21. What would you propose in terms of creating a greater role for the city council in determining and deciding the city budget?

____ The city council should present their own budget then negotiate with the Mayor regarding his budget.

22. What is your position regarding the City's past practice of using surplus tax revenues to pay down future health cost and pension obligations, and the decision not to do so this year?

____ While I don't agree it is a reflection of the economic times that we live in

23. What is your view of how the taxes paid by New Yorkers compare to the value that is received in City services? Do you believe that taxes should be raised or lowered? To the extent you believe taxes should be changed, please provide specific proposals about what taxes you would raise and what services you would cut, if you didn't raise taxes, listed in order of greatest magnitude.

____ I advocate for fair share tax reform. People that make more should pay more.

24. Many policy advocates champion the creation of a more diversified economy, and one that is less reliant on Wall Street. What is your position on such a plan? If you support it, what would you do to diversify the city's economy? How would you adjust spending in New York City to accommodate the anticipated reduction in tax revenue as the tax base shifts to lower paying jobs?

____ I believe that a more diverse economy would allow for the creation of green jobs.

25. What would you propose the Department of Education do to increase the ability for parents and teachers to become more meaningfully involved in the education system? What other positive changes can be made to the New York City public school system?

____ I would advocate that every school have an active school leadership team comprised of 51% parents.

26. What would you propose to increase the transparency of the Board of Elections in the City of New York's operations and accountability to the city and its voters?

____ This is a major concern to me because I see the Board of Election as a politicized body

27. What would you propose to further enhance transparency regarding the relationships between council members, their families, and nonprofits that receive funding from New York City?

____ All funding received by families of council members would be carefully scrutinized for their legitimacy
