14. What is your position on the recent extension of term limits for the city's elected officials to three consecutive four-year terms? Please explain your answer.

Support

Oppose

_____ Although I am principally opposed to term limits, I do respect the sanctity of public referenda, which I do believe, should be the determining factor in deciding all questions of term limits _____

POLICY ISSUES OF IMPORTANCE

Please state your position on the following issues by indicating whether you support or oppose each, where applicable. Please also use the space provided below each question or on a separate sheet of paper to elaborate on your positions on the questions which require a detailed answer. You may also provide additional information on any actions that you have taken or plan to take to advance your positions on these issues.

15. Knowing that the police department and commissioner retain ultimate authority for determining whether an officer is guilty and penalty, what is your position on transferring power to the Civilian Complaint Review Board to prosecute cases of police misconduct, such as force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and offensive language?

Support

Oppose

16. What is your position on changing the current land use process under ULURP to increase the role of community-based planning?

Support

Oppose

17. What is your position regarding the creation of a Charter Revision Commission to review specifically the roles of the various offices of government and how well government has functioned since the 1988 and 1989 charter review commissions?

Support

Oppose

18. What is your position on reforming the current pension funding structure to create multiple tiers for future city government employees?

Support

Oppose

Must be done during the collective bargaining process -

- a. In FY 2008-09, New York City spent $12 billion on pensions and fringe benefits for City employees out of a total budget of $62 billion. What would you do to address the growing pension costs borne by the city and New York City tax payers?

---

---

---

---

19. What is your position with respect to the City Council passing a resolution calling upon the State Legislature to establish a State Constitutional Convention? Support Oppose

a. If support, what are the three most important areas that need improvement?

City should receive further jurisdiction; legislative leadership terms end Judicial Commissions, FTR, Ballot access - equitable legislator resources - Supermajority for tax increases

b. Do you believe that greater home rule should be granted to the City of New York? If so, in what areas should further sovereignty be given?

Land use; tax policy; Education.

20. Taking into consideration the lessons learned from the debates surrounding congestion pricing and the Ravitch Commission's recommendations to provide the MTA with long-term funding, what would you propose to address the MTA's fiscal solvency issues and ensure that the burden for funding the MTA is equitably distributed among all stakeholders?

My Commute Pay the rest - we have the VZ Bridge - Look at a Commuter tax, past year tolls, to more evenly reflect the burden we all share.

21. What would you propose in terms of creating a greater role for the city council in determining and deciding the city budget?

---

---

---

---

22. What is your position regarding the City's past practice of using surplus tax revenues to pay down future health cost and pension obligations, and the decision not to do so this year?

Support overall - this year we could
Not due to tax revenues

23. What is your view of how the taxes paid by New Yorkers compare to the value that is received in City services? Do you believe that taxes should be raised or lowered? To the extent you believe taxes should be changed, please provide specific proposals about what taxes you would raise and what services you would cut, if you didn't raise taxes, listed in order of greatest magnitude.

Lowered to spur Economic Growth -

Fight Waste, Fraud + Abuse -

Lowering taxes will enhance tax receipts, not reduce

24. Many policy advocates champion the creation of a more diversified economy, and one that is less reliant on Wall Street. What is your position on such a plan? If you support it, what would you do to diversify the city's economy? How would you adjust spending in New York City to accommodate the anticipated reduction in tax revenue as the tax base shifts to lower paying jobs?

Support - offer tax incentives to spur
Sector growth (i.e. film, green zones, etc)
This will actually add to our tax base -

25. What would you propose the Department of Education do to increase the ability for parents and teachers to become more meaningfully involved in the education system?
What other positive changes can be made to the New York City public school system?

I believe the new regulations are positive and I would also encourage that all PTA meeting be webcast so that parents at work can still take part.

26. What would you propose to increase the transparency of the Board of Elections in the City of New York's operations and accountability to the city and its voters?

Make it a non-partisan organization

27. What would you propose to further enhance transparency regarding the relationships between council members, their families, and nonprofits that receive funding from New York City?

I support the changes put in place this year and call for greater public access to all documents via the internet.

CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Citizens Union is adding a new element to its evaluation of incumbents running for re-election. In addition to evaluating their stances on the issues above, Citizens Union will assess incumbents on how well they kept the promises they made to voters during the previous election.

As an elected official who is seeking re-election,

- a. what were the top five promises you made to your constituents when you ran for your current position and what progress have you made to keep those promises, and why and why not have you met them?
- b. what are your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position?
