I recently received your questionnaire within the last couple of days and I didn't have as much time to spend on the responses as I would have liked. If I did not answer a question, it probably falls into one of three categories: (1) I have not had an opportunity to read through the bill referenced in its entirety so I prefer to wait to answer the question; (2) I would like to research the issue further before responding; or (3) I have not yet formed an opinion to the subject matter. I am more than willing to expand on any subject given more time to do so. I thank you for the opportunity to communicate with your organization.
