

2012 QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR NEW YORK STATE LEGISLATURE

Citizens Union would appreciate your response to the following questionnaire related to policy issues facing New York State and our interest in reforming state government. Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union will use to evaluate candidates who are running for office in order to determine our "Preferred Candidates" for the September 13th Primary Election, and our "Endorsed Candidates" for the November 6th General Election.

If you seek our support, we would also need to schedule an interview with you as part of the evaluation process. We will not automatically schedule an interview with you if you return this questionnaire, as we prioritize competitive races and resources constrain us from evaluating all races. Please contact us if you wish to be interviewed.

We plan to make responses to this questionnaire public on our website, Voters Directory and other appropriate venues. We thank you very much for your response.

35. What is your position on enactment of legislative rules reform to strengthen rank-and-file members' roles in the legislative process and create more equity between members?	Support/Oppose

I. CANDIDATE QUESTIONS

Please state your position on the following reform measures. Specify whether you support or oppose each. You may elaborate in the space provided at the end or on additional paper.

ELECTION REFORM

1. What is your position on second passage of the constitutional amendment (S.6698/A.9526 of 2012) creating an independent redistricting commission with appointees split evenly between the majority and minority parties?	Support/Oppose
2. What is your position on restructuring the state Board of Elections and changing the administration of elections by amending the constitution to abolish the two-party system of governance and operation?	Support/Oppose
3. What is your position on making it easier for candidates to appear on the ballot by, for example, lowering signature requirements and utilizing less burdensome witness signature requirements?	Support/Oppose
4. What is your position on amending the Municipal Home Rule law to limit the ability of a mayor-appointed charter revision commission to "bump" other local charter amendments from appearing on the ballot?	Support/Oppose
5. What is your position on automatically granting New Yorkers on parole the ability to vote?	Support/Oppose
6. What is your position on amending the constitution to allow for Election Day Registration?	Support/Oppose
7. What is your position on amending the constitution to allow for no-excuse absentee voting?	Support/Oppose
8. What is your position on instituting early voting in New York State to allow voters to cast their votes at more convenient times?	Support/Oppose
9. What is your position on redesigning the ballot to ensure that voters are able to clearly read candidates' names, titles of offices, designations and ballot questions; that instructions are clear and accurate; that bilingual ballots are required; and that the ballot is able to split races between multiple pages?	Support/Oppose
10. What is your position on reforming the special election process, creating a nonpartisan special election for state legislative vacancies, as proposed by A.1369/S.26?	Support/Oppose
11. What is your position regarding automatic voter registration in which voter registration information of individuals who consent to be registered is provided electronically to the Board of Elections, and address information is automatically updated?	Support/Oppose

CAMPAIGN FINANCE REFORM

12. What is your position on establishing a matching public financing system for state legislative and statewide races similar to the New York City model?	Support/Oppose
13. What is your position on lowering campaign contribution limits for legislative and statewide candidates for public office?	Support/Oppose
14. What is your position on restricting campaign contributions from registered lobbyists, placement agents and those who do business with the state?	Support/Oppose
15. What is your position on limiting or banning campaign contributions from corporations, LLCs, and LLPs? (Note: such entities would be able to form separate political action committees due to constitutional issues regarding freedom of speech.)	Support/Oppose
16. What is your position on closing "soft money" loopholes such as limiting transfers from party committees to candidates or other committees to twice the limit set on individual contributors and limiting contributions to party committees, including housekeeping accounts, to the same ceiling placed on candidates?	Support/Oppose
17. What is your position on requiring candidates to include full name, home address, and employer/business name for each contribution and bundler?	Support/Oppose

Please use the space provided or a separate sheet of paper to elaborate on your positions on the issues contained in the previous pages. You may also provide additional information on any actions that you have taken or plan to take to advance your positions on these issues.

Election Reform:

Fundamentally, I am in favor of less cumbersome and more transparent processes that will enable the electorate to grow and become more engaged regarding the electing of officials to represent them. That entails rendering the policies that affect elections more accessible and less opaque; from mitigating the political wrangling behind redistricting to lowering signature requirements to get on ballots. These are just some of the steps that can help garner more credibility for the entire political process.

Campaign Finance Reform:

Special interests have a way of co-opting the political process via explicit and implicit maneuvering. These machinations subvert the democratic ideals that we as a country ostensibly hold dear. Several ways of tamping down this sort of outsized influence is by plugging loopholes when it comes to contributions to political campaigns. We desperately need people to believe in their elected officials, and a step in the right direction would be through reforming how money influences campaigns.

Judicial Reform:

This is fairly straightforward; I think the appointment of judgeships should be less politicized and the entire court system should be more streamlined. As an attorney, I can attest to the stultifying elements in both contexts that hinder the adjudication process in myriad ways.

Ethics Reform:

This circles back to transparency and credibility as it relates to public officials. I have no reservations in implementing and supporting punitive mechanisms that will punish deviant and unlawful behavior if necessary, and as a result, those who seek to skirt the law, should have their pensions forfeited.

Budget Reform:

The budgetary process, much like the judicial process should be less politicized. As I see it, the most effective ways to do so are through rendering the process more transparent and less cumbersome.

II. CAMPAIGN PROMISES MADE TO VOTERS

As a candidate who presently does not hold elected office, CU is interested in knowing your top five campaign promises or goals you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position.

If elected, Citizens Union will use these promises or goals to evaluate your performance while in office, as well as to evaluate your candidacy in the future.

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE 2012 CAMPAIGN PROMISES OR GOALS

1. Accessibility--My campaign's mantra is "community first".
2. Public safety--This weighs heavily on the minds of the voters, and I intend on making this issue a primary one.
3. Jobs--I will redouble efforts to help the district that I hope to represent in fostering economic development as the foundational underpinning of bringing more jobs into the community.
4. "Green initiative"--The Bronx has some of the worst environmental conditions in the country, and I intend on being at the vanguard of the "greening of the Bronx".
5. Education reform--I have been active for some time in helping to improve and quality of education within the communities that I serve; as an elected official, I will proceed apace in furthering this mission.
