6- I have always been a strong supporter of easing ballot access requirements and have sponsored bills to do so. In recent years we significantly simplified witness statements, removed requirement for ED & AD to be listed on each line (and in witness statement) and drastically overhauled and simplify cover sheet requirements. In addition the courts have ruled that you can live anywhere in the state and not just the district to collect signatures. If a candidate for assembly can't get 500 good signatures over a 38-day petition period (that's fewer than 14 signatures per day) collected by any party member from anywhere in the state, then perhaps that candidate has no support and perhaps shouldn't run. To reduce the requirements further is tantamount to eliminating petition, perhaps the most grassroots form of campaigning.

9- I think we should make it even easier to register, but I have concerns about same day registration. I am open to exploring it however.

16- I'm more concerned about billionaires buying elections, especially ones who would like to influence ^{eliminate} political parties.

28- Member terms should be more equally distributed, but I have no problem with the speaker receiving more than a freedom.

30- I could support a May 1 start of the fiscal year, but no later. Certainly not July 1.
