As an elected official who is seeking re-election,

- a. what were the top five promises or goals you made to your constituents when you ran for your current seat and what progress has been made in keeping those promises, and
- b. what are the top five promises or goals you are making to the voters during this campaign?

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE 2010 CAMPAIGN PROMISES OR GOALS

1. Jobs and the Economy: My number one priority is creating jobs that lift families into the middle class. I will focus on stimulating small businesses in our community; generating new, 21st century, green jobs; and ensuring that companies that get money from the state are providing jobs with real wages and health benefits.
2. Education: I will not cut the education budget by a single dollar, not now or ever. We need to increase the funding for schools to hire more teachers, reduce class sizes and provide better opportunities for our students. We also need to increase access for English Language Learners and special needs students and make higher education more attainable by ensuring that tuition rates at SUNY and CUNY schools remain affordable for all.
3. Healthcare: I have focused on healthcare issues my entire career. While working at Elmhurst Hospital I helped create community health clinics throughout our community and worked on the expansion of the hospital. I will fight to make sure our seniors and families have quality healthcare, and increase funding for hospitals to increase the number of hospital beds.
4. Civil Rights: I have led the fight to promote equality and justice for immigrant families. I will be a leader in crafting laws that strengthen hate crime legislation, preventing laws that target immigrants and fighting for national immigration reform. I will also lead the fight to pass marriage equality, to bring justice to families across the state.
5. Restoring Integrity to Albany: The corruption in Albany has paralyzed our state, leading to one of the latest budgets in history. My district deserves a representative who will put them first, and I will represent them with integrity and dignity.
