

Primary Election Snapshot

This section lists primary election races that will take place in New York City on September 13th, and does not include candidates who are unopposed for their party's nomination.

There are a number of primaries for statewide office, including a Democratic Party primary for Governor, and Democratic and Reform party primaries for Attorney General. There are also primaries for New York State Senate and Assembly seats, as well as for judicial positions.

For information about the races in which incumbents face no primary election opposition, please turn to page 34.

† Incumbent

^ Denotes that the candidate submitted the Citizens Union questionnaire. Responses from state Senate and Assembly candidates can be found on pages 8-11.

Questionnaire responses for candidates running for Governor and Attorney General can be found at www.CitizensUnion.org.

Bold denotes the candidate is preferred by Citizens Union in the primary election.

* Denotes that the district overlaps boroughs. Note: These races are repeated in each borough that they fall into.
