

2013 QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR CITY COUNCIL

Citizens Union would appreciate your response to the following questions related to policy issues facing the City of New York that are of concern to Citizens Union and residents of the City. We plan to make public your responses to this questionnaire in our Voters Directory, on our website, and in other appropriate venues. Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union will use to evaluate candidates who are running for office in order to determine our "Preferred Candidates" for the primary election and "Endorsed Candidates" for the general election.

If you seek our support, we would also need to schedule an interview with you as part of the evaluation process. We will not automatically schedule an interview with you if you return this questionnaire, as we prioritize competitive races and resources constrain us from evaluating all races. Please contact us if you wish to be interviewed. We thank you very much for your response.

Additional Comments:

II. CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Citizens Union is adding a new element to its evaluation of candidates running for office. As a candidate who presently does not hold elected office, CU is interested in knowing your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position.

If elected, Citizens Union will use these promises to evaluate your performance while in office, as well as, to evaluate your candidacy in the future.

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE 2013 CAMPAIGN PROMISES

1. Expanding the educational resources and opportunities for our children will be one of my top priorities in the next council. We need to continue to fight for smaller classes sizes and state of the art classrooms so our children can compete in a 21st century job market that is technologically driven.
2. The City can and must do more to expand woman's access to affordable health care. The maternal mortality rate in New York City is on the rise and every woman should have affordable access to basic health care. That's why I will continue to fight for initiatives like the mobile mammogram program so that every woman receives the health care she needs.

3. Keeping New Yorkers safe on their own streets and in their own home can only be achieved if we give our first responders and police officers the resources they need to do the job they volunteered to do. That's why as chair of the Fire and Criminal Justice Committee in the Council I will keep working to keep firehouses open so that we have first responders available in every neighborhood. I will continue to push for more police officers so New York remains the safest big city in the world.
4. Only by continuing to improve and upgrade our infrastructure and transportation network can we continue to pull ourselves out of the recession and make sure every New Yorker can find meaningful employment. I will advocate for continued street repaving, improved public transportation and expanded access to public transportation. I will also continue to fight for updated sewer lines and catch basins to help reduce flooding so local businesses will not have to fear losing everything they worked so hard for.
5. Queens and the communities of Glendale, Ridgewood, Maspeth, Woodhaven, Woodside and Middle Village are some of the best in the world to live in. I grew up here, lived my whole life and am raising my two sons here. I will continue to ensure that our local parks, libraries, senior centers, community groups and after school programs receive the funding they need so we can continue to enjoy the great services they provide.
