This was a good first step, the process has been streamlined and we've seen some good change, but I look forward to a model more closely resembling the New York State Legislature's wherein more bills can be drafted through the commission.

CONSTITUTIONAL CONVENTION

28. In November, voters in New York will be asked whether they wish to hold a constitutional convention to amend the New York State Constitution. What is your position on holding such a convention?	Support / Oppose
---	-------------------------

Convening a Constitutional Convention here in New York State will result in an influx of outside money spent to influence our Constitution and potentially attack some of the most important protections in place for workers, women, and more.

29. If you support the constitutional convention, what actions, if any, will you take to ensure that it takes place? If you oppose the convention, what will you do to defeat it?

I will publicly state my opposition to the Constitutional Convention and let my constituents know.

Last year, Citizens Union helped craft and push for the enactment of a law that placed political contribution limits and disclosure requirements on nonprofits that are formed by, or affiliated with, elected officials, which helped prevent some significant features of an emerging "pay-to-play" culture in New York City. Do you have any other ideas to further limit such a culture and create a better environment where contributions, either personal or political do not unduly influence the actions of elected officials?

I believe we need stronger transparency in our system. We need stricter limitations on bundling contributions-so that a serious money interest can not influence elected officials, and we need a strict reporting system on who elected officials meet with once they are in office and for what end.

Please use the space provided or a separate sheet of paper to elaborate on your positions on the issues contained in the previous pages. You may also provide additional information on any actions that you have taken or plan to take to advance your positions on these issues.

II. CAMPAIGN PROMISES MADE TO VOTERS

As a candidate who presently does not hold elected office, what are your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position.

If elected, Citizens Union will use these promises to evaluate your performance while in office, as well as to evaluate your candidacy in the future.
