

2013 QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR CITY COUNCIL

Citizens Union would appreciate your response to the following questions related to policy issues facing the City of New York that are of concern to Citizens Union and residents of the City. We plan to make public your responses to this questionnaire in our Voters Directory, on our website, and in other appropriate venues. Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union will use to evaluate candidates who are running for office in order to determine our "Preferred Candidates" for the primary election and "Endorsed Candidates" for the general election.

If you seek our support, we would also need to schedule an interview with you as part of the evaluation process. We will not automatically schedule an interview with you if you return this questionnaire, as we prioritize competitive races and resources constrain us from evaluating all races. Please contact us if you wish to be interviewed. We thank you very much for your response.

Additional Comments:

One concern I have is that non-partisan elections provide a significant advantage to candidates who spend the most money to be elected -- and in recent history members of one party have done this more than others. (This is of particular importance for citywide elections.) The voluntary campaign finance system is not enough of a counterweight to candidates willing to invest large amounts of their own money, for example, into an election. Furthermore, the role of independent expenditures would become more significant in a non-partisan election format. In summary, I do not object to the concept of non-partisan elections, in general, but, at this point in time, I don't see a significant enough net benefit to our selections process to use them for all municipal offices.

Response from Ed Hartzog, District 5

II. CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Citizens Union is adding a new element to its evaluation of candidates running for office. As a candidate who presently does not hold elected office, CU is interested in knowing your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position.

If elected, Citizens Union will use these promises to evaluate your performance while in office, as well as, to evaluate your candidacy in the future.

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE 2013 CAMPAIGN PROMISES

1. Making the New York City Board of Elections into a non-partisan agency, staffed by non-patronage employees and fully funded to ensure greater education of and participation by the public.
2. Use every tool at my disposal to prevent the construction of the East 91st Street Marine Transfer Station.
3. Increase government transparency, particularly around fiscal and land-use issues. In my community, residents often wake up to find that government bodies have approved massive tax-breaks and incentives for private developers without any community input or information about what's being built, when the construction will be over or how the public will benefit. Increasing public trust depends on increasing the transparency of this process.
4. Establishing an NYPD precinct on Roosevelt Island. The residents of Roosevelt Island deserve to have trained, accountable officers patrolling their community.
5. Creating more open and green space for the 5th Council District by working to improve the East River Esplanade and access to the river.
