18. What is your position on reforming the current pension funding structure to create multiple tiers for future city government employees? XSupport Oppose

- a. In FY 2008-09, New York City spent $12 billion on pensions and fringe benefits for City employees out of a total budget of $62 billion. What would you do to address the growing pension costs borne by the city and New York City tax payers?

Unfortunate to change current pension parameters involves Constitutional issues; however going forward you can create a more sensible system

19. What is your position with respect to the City Council passing a resolution calling upon the State Legislature to establish a State Constitutional Convention? A. I wouldn't allow the current state legislators to zip up my fly, let alone restructure the State Constitution Support XOppose

- a. If support, what are the three most important areas that need improvement?

- b. Do you believe that greater home rule should be granted to the City of New York? If so, in what areas should further sovereignty be given?

_____ Possibly, I would have to evaluate each area of concern and the impact on the constituents_____

20. Taking into consideration the lessons learned from the debates surrounding congestion pricing and the Ravitch Commission's recommendations to provide the MTA with long-term funding, what would you propose to address the MTA's fiscal solvency issues and ensure that the burden for funding the MTA is equitably distributed among all stakeholders?

____Put the decisions back in the hands of the cowardly legislators that ceded their authority to an Unaccountable Authority.

21. What would you propose in terms of creating a greater role for the city council in determining and deciding the city budget?

None, the reason the City budget works so well is that the Mayor is the only one that can determine revenues estimates and there are strict time frames for passage. If the Council had more authority the City would be broke in a month.

22. What is your position regarding the City's past practice of using surplus tax revenues to pay down future health cost and pension obligations, and the decision not to do so this year?

It is a good and sound financial practice, I can't make a quality assessment as to why is abandoned this year.

23. What is your view of how the taxes paid by New Yorkers compare to the value that is received in City services? Do you believe that taxes should be raised or lowered? To the extent you believe taxes should be changed, please provide specific proposals about what taxes you would raise and what services you would cut, if you didn't raise taxes, listed in order of greatest magnitude.

The reason citizens who are good earners are leaving the City is because the tax base is too high. The same can be said for both small and large businesses. Taxes and fees have to be reduced and annoying city streamlined to provide real assistance to citizens not used as an instrument to extort fees and fines from business and citizens alike. Reduce the City workforce by 30,000 employees and eliminate all services to illegal immigrants.

24. Many policy advocates champion the creation of a more diversified economy, and one that is less reliant on Wall Street. What is your position on such a plan? If you support it, what would you do to diversify the city's economy? How would you adjust spending in New York City to accommodate the anticipated reduction in tax revenue as the tax base shifts to lower paying jobs?

Why lower paying jobs? Make this City more business friendly, and they will come____

25. What would you propose the Department of Education do to increase the ability for parents and teachers to become more meaningfully involved in the education system? What other positives changes can be made to the New York City public school system?

26. What would you propose to increase the transparency of the Board of Elections in the City of New York's operations and accountability to the city and its voters?

__The Board does a pretty good job in administering elections. Would do you mean by transparency?_____

27. What would you propose to further enhance transparency regarding the relationships between council members, their families, and nonprofits that receive funding from New York City?

I introduced legislation during my previous tenure that would have required all organizations receiving funds from the City of New York to file a detailed financial and organizational statement including all offices employees annually in order to be eligible for financing. Naturally the Council took no action on the intro.
