POLICY ISSUES OF IMPORTANCE

Please state your position on the following issues by indicating whether you support or oppose each, where applicable. Please also use the space provided below each question or on a separate sheet of paper to elaborate on your positions on the questions which require a detailed answer. You may also provide additional information on any actions that you have taken or plan to take to advance your positions on these issues.

15. Knowing that the police department and commissioner retain ultimate authority for determining whether an officer is guilty and penalty, what is your position on transferring power to the Civilian Complaint Review Board to prosecute cases of police misconduct, such as force, abuse of authority, discourtesy, and offensive language?

Oppose

- a. In FY 2008-09, New York City spent $12 billion on pensions and fringe benefits for City employees out of a total budget of $62 billion. What would you do to address the growing pension costs borne by the city and New York City tax payers?

I would require New City Hires Contribute to Their Pension Fund also.

19. What is your position with respect to the City Council passing a resolution calling upon the State Legislature to establish a State Constitutional Convention?

Support

Oppose

- a. If support, what are the three most important areas that need improvement?

- b. Do you believe that greater home rule should be granted to the City of New York? If so, in what areas should further sovereignty be given?

Giving us the ability to decide whether to raise sales taxes Mayor's control over schools.

20. Taking into consideration the lessons learned from the debates surrounding congestion pricing and the Ravitch Commission's recommendations to provide the MTA with long-term funding, what would you propose to address the MTA's fiscal solvency issues and ensure that the burden for funding the MTA is equitably distributed among all stakeholders?

Cutting wasteful spending
Is the only way to free the MTA to become financially responsible.

21. What would you propose in terms of creating a greater role for the city council in determining and deciding the city budget?

I think unless special interest projects which contribute to both are left out of the budget, I feel that this idea would be doomed to failure

22. What is your position regarding the City's past practice of using surplus tax revenues to pay down future health cost and pension obligations, and the decision not to do so this year?

This is what I prefer to as being proactive. Many times this does not happen.

23. What is your view of how the taxes paid by New Yorkers compare to the value that is received in City services? Do you believe that taxes should be raised or lowered? To the extent you believe taxes should be changed, please provide specific proposals about what taxes you would raise and what services you would cut, if you didn't raise taxes, listed in order of greatest magnitude.

I don't believe that we as a city can raise taxes as to have an impact on NYC finances even if we instituted across the board tax hikes we would still come up short

I feel that on the Federal govt is where taxes can impact. I think we make cuts in future construction projects and start investing in our infrastructure such as restoration

24. Many policy advocates champion the creation of a more diversified economy, and one that is less reliant on Wall Street. What is your position on such a plan? If you support it, what would you do to diversify the city's economy? How would you adjust spending in New York City to accommodate the anticipated reduction in tax revenue as the tax base shifts to lower paying jobs?

I think Wall Street will bounce back. Wall Street is part of our free market economy. I do feel there might be other areas like alternative energy use, taking companies that want to put alternative energy mechanisms here.

25. What would you propose the Department of Education do to increase the ability for parents and teachers to become more meaningfully involved in the education system? What other positives changes can be made to the New York City public school system?

I think we are on a good course. Parental involvement can be increased if we make grades a 1/10 of a child's grade.

26. What would you propose to increase the transparency of the Board of Elections in the City of New York's operations and accountability to the city and its voters?

Freedom of Information guarantees anyone the ability to see into anyone's campaign. (CPB) offers a website for the public to view a campaign's expenses.

27. What would you propose to further enhance transparency regarding the relationships between council members, their families, and nonprofits that receive funding from New York City?

It's a conflict of interest. It shouldn't be happening.

CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Citizens Union is adding a new element to its evaluation of candidates running for office. As a candidate who presently does not hold elected office, CU is interested in knowing your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position.

If elected, Citizens Union will use these promises to evaluate your performance while in office, as well as, to evaluate your candidacy in the future.

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE 2009 CAMPAIGN PROMISES

1. Since becoming a candidate I've
2. been asked to make such promises.
3. Honestly I am not going to committ
4. myself to anything until I've been
5. given a chance to look at the city finances. I've learned that there is a difference between what someone can promise and what can actually be done.

I don't think it's fair to the voter to put something out there, just for the sake of a vote. I promise to do the best job
I can do. I promise not to give away tax dollars to non profits where my family works. → Turn-over

I promise not to take special Interest money. I promise not to allow lobbyists to sway my vote.
I promise not to take campaign contributions from anyone that expects something in return. I promise to go hungry if my constituents are hungry.
