

2013 QUESTIONNAIRE FOR CANDIDATES FOR CITY COUNCIL

Citizens Union would appreciate your response to the following questions related to policy issues facing the City of New York that are of concern to Citizens Union and residents of the City. We plan to make public your responses to this questionnaire in our Voters Directory, on our website, and in other appropriate venues. Responses to these questions will be one of several factors Citizens Union will use to evaluate candidates who are running for office in order to determine our "Preferred Candidates" for the primary election and "Endorsed Candidates" for the general election.

If you seek our support, we would also need to schedule an interview with you as part of the evaluation process. We will not automatically schedule an interview with you if you return this questionnaire, as we prioritize competitive races and resources constrain us from evaluating all races. Please contact us if you wish to be interviewed. We thank you very much for your response.

Additional Comments:

A number of the questions did not lend themselves to support/oppose answers and would like to flesh out my answers in person.

II. CANDIDATE ACCOUNTABILITY QUESTIONNAIRE

Citizens Union is adding a new element to its evaluation of incumbents running for re-election. In addition to evaluating their stances on the issues above, Citizens Union will assess incumbents on how well they kept the promises they made to voters during the previous election.

As an elected official who is seeking re-election, a. What were the top five promises you made to your constituents when you ran for your current position and what progress have you made to keep those promises, and why and why not have you met them?

b. What are your top five campaign promises you are making to the voters during this campaign for this position?

We thank you very much for your response. Please feel free to use additional paper if the space provided is not sufficient.

TOP FIVE CAMPAIGN PROMISES FROM YOUR MOST RECENT CAMPAIGN AND ACTION ON THEM

1. Being an advocate for schools and for parents against the misguided reforms of the DOE. To do so I have been the leading voice in rejecting Cathie Black as chancellor and have been a constant voice for the parents of my district in the city.
2. To become a strong advocate for co-op and condo owners. In order to do so, I establish the co-op and condo caucus of the city council. We stopped the department of finance from overcharging them, and passed the most sweeping of co-op and condo taxes in the states history.
3. We promised to eliminate discrimination in the workplace for those wearing religious garb. In response we passed the workplace religious freedom act.
4. I promised to bring transparency to the democratic process. To do so we passed the open data law in the city council and have advocate through open and fair budgeting as well as instituting the participatory budgeting in the district.
5. I promised for smarter development to protect the quality of life in our community. We passed the largest down zoning and as chair of the zoning committee ensured mandated affordable housing, creating

TOP FIVE 2013 CAMPAIGN PROMISES

1. To make sure I continue to work on my promises from last time and ensure that the work we have done towards them continues to flourish.
2. To take up the mantle of open government from Gale Brewer to be the leading advocate of open government within the city.
3. To make a more informed public through the use of technology.
4. To reduce the influence of standardized testing on our schools.
5. I am proud to represent the most diverse district in the city of New York and will continue to advocate for their various needs and concerns as they may arise.
